I know the way , know word of clay
Know my play but I don't know your say

Everybody say me "love is the power"
But why is hard for me this hour

I don't know you play with my soul
Or you want to earn my control

All of things I give you ,love...truth
But you went and brought my youth

If you want throb of my heart
Or want my pen and its art...

No, if and if , it is only a word
You don't want me to afford

You create me ... and breed
And then destroy my creed

You can be my love and creator
Or can be my hate and terminator

Awake my sun , you are here
And your sound is in this bier

My sun please don't bind your brow
You promised me laugh , laugh now

I said you ,your frown is my pain
But you kill and give me prison chain

My sun maybe this love is wrong
But why I am writing this long song

I am going and leaving you my sun laugh !my SHAMS this is only fun
